focusing on the politics of representation and constructions of identity the author analyses the impact of european regionalism on the mediterranean in howards end forster remarks that the imperialist hopes to inherit the earth and with the strong temptation he has to acclaim it as a superyeoman who carries his country s virtue overseas he then adds but the imperialist is not what he thinks or seems he is a destroyer he prepares the way for cosmopolitanism and though his ambitions may be fulfilled the earth that he inherits will be grey this simple notion is masterly expressed in a passage to india which provides a rich diversity of historical contexts and implies political imperatives urging us to rethink the complex relationship between east and west not as simple confrontation but rather as deeply rooted in cultural differences far beyond the realm of imperialist sensibility with the support of material by forster published here for the first time this volume explores the realm of forster s politics and imperialism in recent decades there has been an exponential increase in large hydroelectric plants in brazil especially in the amazon region these large hydraulic structures impact the environment and the lives of people living in the places where they settle and require a special type of water governance the dictatorial regime 1964 1985 created a standard for the construction of these great structures through an institutional and legal framework which benefited the brazilian business elite but also through the creation of a popular imagination which shows itself lasting progress on the country s progress and development the suspension of security the fragility of institutional environmental structures the disrespect for indigenous reserves the lack of clarity about the concept of affected population and the non payment of fair compensation were identified as one of the main challenges for a democratic water governance in the country in the late 1970s the dam affected movement mab began its organization and is also studied in this research the study is an important and insightful academic contribution to the understanding of the main bottlenecks of effective water governance in brazil
